

Kilkenny County Council Arts Office E-bulletin 12th August 2016

Dear All,

Welcome to the fortnightly e-bulletin from Kilkenny County Council's Arts Office. Each bulletin is packed with the latest information on Kilkenny Arts Office activities, county events as well as news and opportunities for arts practitioners from around the country.

This service will be provided fortnightly. To include an item in the next e-bulletin please send a brief outline of your advert with relevant contact details, including any websites or pages with links to niamh.brophy@kilkennycoco.ie before 25th August. The next e-bulletin will be on the 27th August.

While every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of our information, we strongly advise readers to verify all details to their own satisfaction.

Regards,

FINAL WEEKEND! Alternative Arts Kilkenny

Alternative Kilkenny Arts (AKA) is a collaboration of people living in Kilkenny who have an interest in or practice within the arts around the City and County. Alternative Kilkenny Arts Fringe Festival provides a great opportunity for many not involved in the main programme to exhibit, perform, recite and activate their work around the City during the Festival. There has from time to time been a tradition of an informal fringe programme to compliment the main festival. But it has been inconsistent. AKA is endeavouring to bring together these strands under a single programme to promote a diverse range of artistic and creative talent, offer a platform and to raise awareness to patrons of the festival that all of this is going on in our City; all of the time!

In the limited time and within the limited resources we had to put this together, we regret that much of the visual arts strand and many other events are not listed here. It would simply be impossible to cover it all. It is our hope that in exploring our lovely little City that you will wander in to many of the wonderful exhibitions that cram every available wall space in the City and even on our Mayor's Walk.

We are most grateful to all who have given of their time, shared their skills and donated hard cash to bring this programme together. A big thanks to Karol Ryan for his graphic design work and to all the artists, musicians, creators, practitioners and misfits who make Kilkenny such a unique melting pot of creativity. Most of all we hope that you will go out and shop local and buy and support Alternative Kilkenny Arts! Enjoy the Festival!

There is no committee as such, but these people helped putting stuff together for what we hope will be the first of many AKA'S. It's open to everyone and very inclusive so get involved! Willie Meighan, Malcolm Noonan, Karol Ryan, Nicci St George Smith, Arthur Drohan, Niamh Moroney, Cathal McFarlane, Ciaran O Neill, Johnny Keenan, Ann Mulrooney, Mary Butler, Dermot Agnew...

Born-Kilkenny City 1956. Educated locally in the CBS and Vocational Schools. 1796, VEC Scholarship to study in the National College of Art & Design. 1978, Scholarship to study in the University of Minnesota, USA. Dathaí loves the traditional art of drawing, and occasionally uses colour to enhance an image.

NEW! MADE in Kilkenny 'Rhythms in Making': Butler House | 5-14 August

Rhythms in Making is an exhibition which illustrates the various repetitive and rhythmic processes artists use to produce their work. These processes are shown through audio and video displays. New work by the group will be shown along with the tools being used in the videos.

NEW! Pull the Rug

The poster for the 'Pull the Rug' exhibition features a photograph of a brown and white tabby cat lying on a light-colored carpet. To the right of the cat is a red square containing a white border. Inside the border, the text 'PULL THE RUG' is written in a stylized, diagonal font. Below this, the text 'OUT FROM UNDER THE CARPET' is written in a similar style. At the bottom of the red square, the text 'duchamp is dead' is written in a simple, lowercase font.

August brings us a stunning exhibition of work by Irish and international ceramists exploring themes of function and form, vase and vessel. A full programme of events including talks, installations and workshops kick off for the Kilkenny Arts Festival and continue through the autumn, for September and October events see our website.

EXHIBITION: VASE - Function Reviewed

6 August - 6 November

Curated by Brian Kennedy VASE: Function Reviewed explores functionality in ceramics through a series of works by Irish and international artists. The exhibition showcases a range of objects, from the consciously matching to the gloriously mismatched, the proudly functional to the emphatically dysfunctional, the useful and the useless. VASE: Function Reviewed offers a lively and stimulating debate on form versus function within contemporary ceramics and encourages an animated debate on hierarchies within contemporary ceramics, making us look anew at the objects that surround us.

CURATORS TALK: Brian Kennedy with guests

6 August, 3pm

Join us for a special introduction to VASE: Function Reviewed, as curator Brian Kennedy, joined by a number of the artists, discusses the ideas behind the exhibition.

The curators introduction is followed by the official exhibition launch at 4pm.

INTERACTIVE INSTALLATION: Clay Collection

Sat 6 + Sun 7 August, 12noon - 5pm

Drop-in and make a pot with ceramic artists Amy Mackle, Caroline Getty and Ashley Sheppard as they create a ceramic studio in the Castle Yard during the opening weekend of the Kilkenny Arts Festival.

Pinch, coil, roll or model your own pot, making it unique with pattern or shape and help us create our Clay Collection installation.

DROP-IN: Clay Discovery

Mon 8 - Sun 14 August, 2.30pm - 5pm

Drop-in any afternoon during the festival to play with clay at our discovery and experimentation table in the gallery. All ages and abilities welcome to join in the making!

NEW! Music and Memoirs of an Irish Harper

MUSIC AND MEMOIRS OF AN IRISH HARPER

On the bicentenary of Arthur Ó Néill, c. 1737-1816

On Friday, 19th August, at 8pm, the Chapter House of St Mary's Cathedral will resound with the beautiful bell-like sounds of Ireland's iconic instrument, the brass-strung early Irish harp. Siobhán Armstrong and Ann Heymann, two of the finest early Irish harpists in the world today, will be joined by well-known Galway-based sean-nós singer and piper, Éamonn Ó Bróithe in a celebration of the bicentenary of Arthur Ó Néill, one of the last of the travelling harpers, who died in 1816.

Arthur Ó Néill was one of the most important of the harpers who gathered in Belfast in 1792 for the famous Belfast Harpers' Meeting, where Edward Bunting, a 19-year-old organist, wrote down the music and information on the unique harp that the Irish harpers played.

Arthur had a wonderful memory and a rich fund of stories about his life as a traveling harper. He dictated his memoirs, which served as an important source for Bunting's work on Irish music. These are a lively and often humorous series of anecdotes that give a wonderful glimpse of an 18th-century Irish harper's life and the society that he played for. He tells the tale of Thady Elliot, a blind harper, who was promised a gallon of whiskey if he would 'rattle up Planxty Connor' at the consecration during Christmas Mass. This he did, and the priest, unable to speak to Thady at that solemn moment, stamped his feet angrily. According to Arthur, At this, the people exclaimed in Irish 'Dhar Dhiah thaw Soggart a Dhounsa', that is, 'By God, the Priest is dancing'!

The concert on 19th August at 8pm in the Chapter House of St Mary's Cathedral, James St, will feature more of Arthur Ó Néill's entertaining stories, along with a wonderful programme of the music and songs collected from him by Edward Bunting.

Tickets are €18 / €12 concession. Bookings at 083 860 9677 and at the door. This concert is part of the Historical Harp Society of Ireland's 2016 Summer Concert Series and takes place during the Society's international summer school at St. Kieran's College, Kilkenny: Scoil na gCláirseach—Summer School of Early Irish Harp, 17th–23rd August. For more information on HHSI events: www.irishharp.org, or join the HHSI on facebook: Historical Harp Society of Ireland. Supported by An Comhairle Ealaíon, Kilkenny County Council, Fáilte Ireland and IPB Insurance. The HHSI is also supported by Music Network and The Dept of Arts, Heritage and the Gaeltacht.

NEW! Cork singer songwriter Ger Wolfe will play an acoustic session in the Tea House at Woodstock Gardens

Cork singer songwriter Ger Wolfe will play an acoustic session in the Tea House at Woodstock Gardens the 11th of September from 6 to 8pm. Well known songwriter of songs like 'The Curra Road', 'The Lark of Mayfield' and 'She scattered crumbs', Ger Wolfe has released seven CD's of original material over the last twenty years; his latest entitled "I Have Been Loved". Celebratory, reflective, independent in mind and nature, Ger continues to plough his own way through the Irish musical landscape, heedless of fad or fashion. True to the art of the songwriter he tells his own story as he should, in his own unique voice. Ger is a fine poet and composer all rolled into one, a multi-instrumentalist and a lover of the human voice as the best instrument we have to relate to the mystery of life. Come and hear him play live if you have the chance and visit www.gerwolfe.com to find out more

BARNFEST

Barnstorm Theatre Company celebrates its 25th year with a season of plays for children and their families.

From Scotland, Shona Reppe presents:

The Curious Scrapbook of Josephine Bean

Who was Josephine Bean? The wonderful and surprising secret is revealed with each turn of the page... Join the world renowned scrapologist, Patricia Barker, as she discovers the secrets held within the pages of a scrapbook. Everything is flat, pressed, squished. A dusty, musty smell mixes with the scent of old lavender and slowly, page-by-page, the scrapbook becomes a window into a secret world and a curious life unfolds before us.

Ages 7+

'a highly original, beautifully delicate and thoroughly engaging piece of children's theatre'
(Sunday Herald)

From Belfast, Young at Art presents:
Once Upon A Time

A unique interactive performance where children actively take part in the creation and telling of a new story under the guidance of the Story Tellers.

The very trusted and nearly excellent Guardians of Tall Tales and Small Stories look after EVERY STORY EVER MADE IN THE WORLD in the most Extraordinary Wonderful and Magical Library. BUT there was a fire and the stories were destroyed!

The very trusted and nearly excellent Guardians of Tall Tales and Small Stories have to find EVERY story again and have found all of them.....EXCEPT FOR ONE!!

Can you help them find the very last missing story?

However, there is a twist... one of the storytellers cannot speak, but he can draw. The story that the children create unfolds before their very eyes, drawn onto a large drawing board.

From Belfast, Cahoots NI presents:
Shh! We Have a Plan

A new & exciting theatrical adventure for young children!

Shh! We have a Plan is the brand new theatre production by the multi award winning Theatre Company Cahoots NI. Based on the Chris Houghton book of the same title, this delightful and poignant tale follows the journey of some madcap characters each of whom has a plan, they all want to capture a beautiful bird perched high in a tree! Sounds simple, but the quest becomes an obsession and the obsession becomes the absurd! Where will it all end? Join us as we follow the characters' exploits, meet an elusive and magical little birdie and discover that perhaps freedom and kindness are more important than getting what you want at any cost!

Prepare to be enchanted and amazed by this unique and engaging production featuring Magic, Music, Puppetry and lots lots more!"

Blackstack Studios Exhibition

Decisions, decisions ... Blackstack Studio is five years old this year and we have so many wonderful prints to choose from for the Blackstack retrospective exhibition as part of the Kilkenny Arts Festival. This exhibition will be held at the Barnstorm Theatre Company - watch this space for full details!

Engagement; Work in progress – The Courtship

The Glasshouse Gallery, Gardenia, 15/16 John Street, Kilkenny

Exhibition continues until 14th August, 2016

Open 10.30 am - 5 pm daily (Sunday 12am - 5 pm)

Engagement is an ongoing project through which artists from the wider art community in Ireland and artists from KCAT Studio, Callan, have agreed to work together over a period of years, building up equitable relationships that take many forms, but all of them creative. Since the project is ongoing, those relationships are changing and developing and will continue to do so. To mark what seems like a half-way point we are exhibiting the first main phase of this engagement – the courtship period.

Like all courtships this one is about getting to know one another, about each artist becoming familiar with often different ways of working, even with different backgrounds and cultures. Like more traditional courtships too, it is about wanting to share, learn from each other, find whatever it takes to make the relationships work. This has led some of the artists to work in pairs and others to form less specific ways of interacting, curating each other's work, corresponding across continents or from studio to studio or just visiting and talking.

At this stage of the process we are showing work by Margaret Walker, Anna Spearman, Declan Byrne, Alistair MacLennan, Mary Cody, Paul Mosse, Eileen Mulrooney, Mary Ann Gelly, Francis Casey, Saturio Alonso, Andrew Pike, Nevan Lahart and Mollie Douthit.

The next phase of Engagement will be presented in 2017.

Butler Gallery Michael Snow The Viewing of Six Works

The Butler Gallery is honoured to present a major exhibition by the internationally renowned visual artist, filmmaker and musician Michael Snow.

Snow's extensive and multidisciplinary career includes painting, sculpture, video, film, sound, photography, holography, drawing, writing, and music. His highly influential body of work, which spans more than five decades, explores the nature of perception, consciousness, language, and temporality. Snow is one of the world's leading experimental filmmakers, having inspired the Structural Film movement with his groundbreaking film Wavelength (1967).

The Viewing of Six New Works (2012) draws on Snow's past work of examining the nature of perception and the physical relationship of the artwork to the viewer. Six projectors cast richly coloured monochrome geometries onto white walls. The rectangular shape elongates, rotates, and contorts into shapes that include trapezoid and rhombus. These transmuting light projections simulate the varying ways a person might look at a rectangular wall-mounted artwork by digitally mimicking and mirroring the movement of the eyes. There is a notable sense of play and experimentation in the way Snow relates what he is thinking in this conceptually pristine yet beautiful installation. "The work is an attempt to present only the movements of perception, not perception itself. The art of looking." - Michael Snow

Michael Snow is a visual artist, filmmaker and musician. He first exhibited in New York in the 1960s and became internationally recognized for pioneering avant-garde cinema with the film Wavelength (1967). His work is represented in private and public collections worldwide including the Museum of Modern Art, New York; the Hirshhorn Museum, Washington, DC; the National Gallery of Canada, Ottawa; the Art Gallery of Ontario, Toronto; Museum Ludwig, Cologne; Centre Georges-Pompidou, Paris, and both the Montréal Museum of Fine Arts and the Musée d'Art Contemporain in Montréal. Michael Snow has represented Canada at the Venice Biennale and is a member of the Order of Canada and a Knight of the Order of Arts and Letters in France. Snow has recently exhibited Solo Snow at Le Fresnoy and a solo exhibition at The Vienna Secession, a sculpture retrospective at the Art Gallery of Ontario and a solo show at the Philadelphia Museum of Art. Michael Snow is represented by the Jack Shainman Gallery, New York.

Novel Fair 2017

Described by The Irish Times as a 'Dragon's Den for writers', the Novel Fair is an Irish Writers Centre initiative which aims to introduce up-and-coming writers to top publishers and literary agents, giving novelists the opportunity to bypass the slush pile, pitch their ideas and place their synopsis and sample chapters directly into the hands of publishers and agents.

Over the past few years a range of publishers and agents have attended the Fair including Penguin Random House Ireland, Hachette Ireland, Transworld Ireland, Curtis Brown, New Island Books, O'Brien Press/Brandon, Liberties Press, Lilliput Press, Tramp Press, The Book Bureau, Marianne Gunn O'Connor Literary Agency, Jonathan Williams Literary Agency, Lisa Richards Agency, Feldstein Agency and Author Rights Agency and New York based agent Regal Hoffmann & Associates.

There have been a number of success stories since the Novel Fair has been established, such as:

- Janet E. Cameron's novel Cinnamon Toast (Hachette)
- Niamh Boyce's novel The Herbalist (Penguin Ireland) which was longlisted for IMPAC 2015
- Beatsploitation by Kevin Curran (Liberties Press)

- Here In No Place by Alan Timmons' (New Island)
- The Reluctant Cannibal by Ian Flitcroft (Legend Press)
- Daniel Seery's novel A Model Partner (Liberties Press)
- Susan Lanigan's White Feathers (Brandon Press)
- Eggshells by Caitriona Lally (Liberties Press)
- Andrea Carter's novel Death at Whitewater Church (Constable & Robinson)
- Swimming on Dry Land by Helen Blackhurst (Seren)

The Novel Fair 2017 submissions period is now officially open with the deadline for applications on 21 October 2016. The Fair itself takes place on 18 February 2017.

Take a look at our video of Novel Fair 2015 to get a flavour for just how exciting this event can be!

Before entering the competition, please ensure that you have read the Terms & Conditions very carefully as the Fair is open to previously unpublished aspiring novelists only.

SAVE THE DATE: 26 August | VAI Get Together 2016

We are delighted to announce that this years Get Together – our national day of coming together with talks, clinics, presentations, information sharing and networking will take place on Friday, 26 August 2016 in The Irish Museum of Modern Art, Dublin.

NYCI Certificate in Youth Arts 2016/2017

* * Closing date for applications - Friday 19th August 2016* ****

“The course gave me space and time, along with a new vocabulary to think about and therefore understand what youth arts means to me and what it means for society. This increased understanding allowed me to return to my work armed with renewed motivation, new and important contacts, increased policy and sector knowledge and a fired up imagination.”

NUI Certificate in Youth Arts

The Certificate in Youth Arts is a part time programme of study in Irish Youth Arts Practice, with 6 modules covered over 12 contact days between October and June. The programme is a partnership initiative of Maynooth University and the National Youth Council of Ireland Arts Programme and leads to an award of the National University of Ireland, placed at Level 7 on the National Qualifications Framework.

The Certificate in Youth Arts aims to introduce those working in the non-formal education sector to the concepts, principles and practice of youth arts using a context and practice approach.

The Certificate in Youth Arts is recruiting potential candidates in summer 2016 for the 2016/17 academic year. For further information or to request an application form, please contact Anna Gunning, Youth Arts Programme, National Youth Council of Ireland on 01 4255932 or anna@nyci.ie. We look forward to hearing from you!

Call for Submissions / Residencies / Public Art

NEW! Residency Open Call | Saari Residence, Finland

Deadline: 31 August

Saari Residence, maintained by Kone Foundation, is a residence for artists and researchers in Mynämäki, Finland. Its purpose is to offer artists and researchers from different disciplines a peaceful working environment and excellent opportunities for interaction.

The Saari Residence is a tranquil facility and a fruitful meeting point for artists and researchers. The Saari Residence offers Finnish and non-Finnish artists, critics and translators the chance to work intensively for a period of two months in a relaxed countryside setting from September to April. Artistic groups may also apply for use of the residence's facilities for limited periods of time from May to August.

The goal of Kone Foundation is to advance bold initiatives in research and the arts. It is an independent and unaffiliated organisation, which awards grants to promote academic research, culture, art and the popularisation of research, maintains the Saari Residence for artists and researchers and organises various events.

Each resident is provided with an apartment and workroom. Kone Foundation provides monthly grants (2,350 or 2,700 euros/month) for the duration of the residency period. Groups can apply for grants to compensate for expenses.

NEW! Open Call | DLR Visual Art Commission and Exhibition

Deadline: 19 October, 12 noon

Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council wishes to commission two visual artists to create a new body of work which will culminate in an exhibition (by each artist) in the Municipal Gallery, dlr Lexlcon. Two artists will be selected by way of an open submission selection process. Each artist will be paid a commission of €10,000 and will be given an agreed period of time of at least 1 year to undertake the commission. The resultant artworks will be displayed in the dlr Lexlcon Gallery over a five to seven week period (including installation and take-down), in 2018 or 2019 at dates mutually agreed by the selected artist and the dlr Arts Office.

Applications are invited from artists who are living in, working in or originally from Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown or who have studied visual art in the county.

NEW! Open Call | InktoberFest, New Visual Arts Festival, Wicklow

Deadline: 29 August

Submissions are now open to participate in a new visual arts festival in Wicklow Town titled InktoberFest. The project will take place from the 1st – 3rd October, 2016.

An arts trail of exhibitions in varying spaces will be created through Wicklow town using two large Halls to form the beginning and end of the arts trail along with a series of vacant shop spaces leading from one Hall to the other.

The two Halls will act as typical gallery white spaces and host most of the selected work. The vacant shop spaces we will be supplied are intended for individual artists/ groups to create autonomous exhibitions. We are seeking work and proposals for both types of spaces.

As Wicklow town currently has no Cinema, no theatre, no music hall and no gallery for contemporary art the festival will service the community by exposing many people in Wicklow to the exciting work being produced by Contemporary Artists. The event has no theme as such but rather it aims to celebrate creative diversity through a broad spectrum of contemporary visual arts and to explore the range of approaches artists have today.

This is the first year of the event and we are working on a volunteer capacity without any financial backing or funding to make it happen. For this reason there is a €10 application fee. This will be used to directly subsidise the administrative costs, IT resources and space to process applications. Any surplus in this fund will be diverted into the practical installation costs of InktoberFest.

There will also be a 25% commission on any work sold through the festival. All funds raised through this will go directly towards InktoberFest 2017 as mean to perpetuate the Festival as an annual event. It is our ambition to reduce and remove these costs in the future once other forms of financing the event has been attained.

All submissions via website- inktober.org/submissions

NEW! Open Call | Skerries Artwaves Exhibition

Deadline: 26 August, 5pm

This year's Artwaves 2016 exhibition is now open for submissions and introduces the 'Peoples Choice Award'.

The chosen artist will receive €500 prize money and solo exhibition at Skerries Mills during 2017. Open to all artists living/working in Fingal and all types of artwork will be considered in any medium. Submission is free.

The exhibition runs from the 12th to the 25th of September 2016 at various locations around Skerries. This festival is part of Skerries Soundwaves 2016 and we want to display the talents of visual artists within the Fingal area.

NEW! National Youth Council of Ireland | Artist and Youth Work Residency Scheme

The deadline for receipt of applications is Monday 5 September 2016

The Young People, Children and Education (YPCE) Team wishes to advise that the window of application is now open for the Artist and youth work residency scheme 2016/17. This scheme is managed by the National Youth Council of Ireland (NYCI) on behalf of the Arts Council and the Department of Children and Youth Affairs

The artist and youth work residency scheme is designed to promote innovative partnerships between youth groups, artists and (where relevant) arts organisations. A residency may take the form of an artist in residence in a youth work setting and/or a youth group in residence in an arts setting.

There are two strands to the artist and youth work residency scheme. Strand 1 – development; and Strand 2 – full residency.

Strand 1 – development (€1500, with potential to apply for a further €3500)

This strand is intended to support an organisation or artist to work with proposed partners to develop a collaborative residency programme. Successful applicants for Strand 1 will have the opportunity to submit a follow-up proposal within three months of receiving their award for funding to follow through on the proposed programme.

Strand 2- full residency (€5000)

This strand is intended to support residency programmes that have been jointly developed by the partners involved (i.e. the artist, youth group and any other key partner organisation) and that fully meet the criteria for the award.

The maximum award available is €5,000.

If you require further information, please contact Niamh Dillon, Youth Arts Project Officer, National Youth Council of Ireland at 01 478 41 22 or niamh@nyci.ie

For more information on the scheme and how to apply visit here: <http://www.youtharts.ie/content/artist-youth-work-scheme>

NEW! Open Call | DLR Announce 120,000 euro Roger Casement Memorial Commission

Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council invites expressions of interest from artists for the creation of a new artwork to be situated in the newly developed Dún Laoghaire Baths area. The commission is to commemorate the life of Roger Casement and his particular significance to the local area.

Roger Casement was born in Sandycove, Co. Dublin on September 1, 1864. Casement was one of the most interesting Irishmen in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. He held a number of consular appointments in various locations in Africa. During this time he investigated human rights abuses in the Belgian Congo. He later reported on the abuse of rubber workers in Brazil for which he was knighted in 1911. Casement later resigned from the Foreign Office and devoted his energies to Irish independence. Most notably he went to Germany to garner their support for a Rising in Ireland. On Good Friday 1916 he landed at Banna Strand, County Kerry, where he was immediately arrested. When he was transferred to London to stand trial his last sight of Ireland was from the boat at Dún Laoghaire harbour. He was found guilty of high treason and executed at Pentonville Prison on 3 August 1916.

The commissioners are seeking a representational sculpture of Casement. It is proposed to locate the commission at the end of the new jetty to be built in the Dún Laoghaire Baths area (see Architectural Plans in Brief). The brief does not specify the materials to be used; however, the preferred materials of the commissioning body are bronze, stone or concrete. The artwork is intended to be permanent and of high quality. The materials used should take into consideration the environmental demands of the site.

Budget

The total budget available for the artwork is up to €120,000 (inclusive of VAT).

Commission Process

This is a two-stage commission process. Stage 1 is open to any artists. A maximum of 4 artists will be shortlisted for Stage 2. Shortlisted artists will be paid a fee of €1,500 to develop Stage 2 proposals. The selection panel will be comprised of 6 people, including representatives from DLR Memorial Committee, Arts Office, Architect Department and 2 independent professional artists.

Deadline

The deadline for Stage 1 applications is Friday 7 October 2016 at 12 noon.
Late submissions will not be accepted.

Applications

Applicants are requested to read the full content of the briefing document carefully as it contains important information pertaining to all stages of the commission.

Guidelines and Application Form: Roger Casement Commission Brief

Please note that all Stage 1 submissions should be posted in hard copy to:

Senior Executive Officer, Corporate Services
Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council

Open Call for a Socially Engaged Commission at Tate Liverpool as part of the Collaborative Arts Partnership Programme funded by Creative Europe

Salary: Project budget: 40,000 GBP (approximately 50,000 EUR)

Location: Liverpool - Tate Liverpool

Closing date: 30 August 2016 at midnight

Tate Liverpool is fully committed to challenging the ways in which art is presented to the public and how this can evolve through working in social contexts.

To this end Tate Liverpool opens the call for collaborative socially engaged artist/s born in or resident in the UK, Ireland, Spain, Finland, Hungary or Germany, (partner countries within the Collaborative Arts Partnership Programme).

The brief is to research and deliver a new commission in Spring, 2017. The commission process will include a research period with the opportunity to develop a new work at Tate Liverpool, in collaboration with local communities and a network of established partners in the North of England and beyond.

It is envisaged that artists will work with local communities outside the institution as well as use the top floor gallery space at Tate Liverpool throughout April 2017.

Artists should have experience of working in the field of collaborative socially engaged practice, understand the ethical issues involved, be relevant to local conditions and engage a broad audience.

Individual artists or artist collectives are invited to submit draft proposals by 30 August 2016.

This Commission is part of the Collaborative Arts Partnership Programme, find more information at www.create-ireland.ie

Supported by the Creative Europe programme of the European Union (Culture Sub-Programme) Support for European Co-operation Projects Education, Audiovisual and Culture Executive Agency.

NEW! Arts Council | Reel Art Scheme 2016

The deadline for receipt of applications is Friday 7 October 2016 at 5pm.

The Arts Council has announced the deadline for the 2016 Reel Art scheme. Launched in 2008, Reel Art is designed to provide film artists with a unique opportunity to make highly creative, imaginative and experimental documentaries on an artistic theme. Operated in association with Filmbase and the Audi Dublin International Film Festival, Reel Art will wholly support two films with grants of €70-€80,000 per project. Reel Art films will premiere at the Dublin International Film Festival in February 2018. The Arts Council's purpose in offering the Reel Art scheme is to support film artists to make documentary art films that would not otherwise get made. A key aim of the scheme is to complement, rather than replicate, the documentary and other funding programmes offered by the Arts Council, broadcasters and funding agencies in Ireland.

Reel Art projects should be conceived for theatrical exhibition at film festivals and in arthouse cinema settings. Only proposals for original, imaginative and aesthetically-driven treatments of arts subjects will be considered. Proposals that offer visually engaging, creative and experimental approaches to their subject will be prioritised.

Film artists interested in applying for Reel Art are invited to attend an information session on the scheme on Tuesday 6 September at 3pm in Filmbase, Curved Street, Temple Bar, Dublin 2. This session will outline the purpose and priorities of the award and will answer questions on the scheme. Anyone interested in attending is required to register their interest by sending an email to reelart@filmbase.ie.

Updated guidelines for Reel Art 2016, together with application forms for the scheme are available for download from the website www.filmbase.ie/reelart as are details of previous Reel Art projects.

NEW! Arts Council | Festivals and Events Scheme 2017

The closing date for Round 1 is 29 September 2016.

The Arts Council announces Round 1 of the 2017 Festivals and Events Scheme (FES). The Council recognises the distinctive role arts festivals play in sustaining a vibrant arts profile at a local level. Festivals provide opportunities for audiences and artists to experience new work and ways of making work.

The objective of the scheme is to support a diverse range of arts festivals and events. While these might be expressed in a variety of forms, the scheme's focus is firmly placed on public engagement and activities that have the arts as their core and foundation.

The Festivals and Events Scheme is open to multi-disciplinary festivals, single art form festivals, once-off events and concert series. There are two strands of funding available:

Strand 1: Up to €10,000

Strand 2: Between €10,001 and €20,000

All first-time applicants or those who previously received funding below the €10,000 threshold in their most recent application must apply under Strand 1 of the scheme. Those applicants who were offered €10,000 or more (up to €20,000) in their most recent application may apply to Strand 2.

The Festivals and Events Scheme is open to organisations promoting festivals or events with a clear artistic purpose and that will take place in the first half of the calendar year 2017. Applications for funding for festivals taking place in the second half of 2017 should apply to Round 2.

The scheme is also open to organisations running a series of events (e.g. concerts) throughout the calendar year – in other words, apply under this round for support for the full programme of events.

register in advance of making an application. It may take up to five working days for your registrations to be confirmed so it is very important that you register as early as possible.

Arts Council Northern Ireland | Rosy James Memorial Trust Award

Deadline: 26 August, 4pm

An annual bursary, the Rosy James Memorial Trust Award, worth £15,000, is open for applications. This unique bursary aims to assist craft makers to develop their careers by creating a new body of work which would otherwise have been unattainable without the funding award.

Administered by the Arts Council of Northern Ireland, the Rosy James Memorial Trust Award, established in 2014, came about thanks to the generosity of Rosemary James (Rosy), a local pioneer and patron of the arts. Originally from Belfast, Rosy had a lifelong commitment to the arts and following her death in 2010, bequeathed over £500,000 to help artists and craft makers pursue their careers. The fund will award one bursary of £15,000 per year.

Silversmith Stuart Cairns received the bursary in 2014 using the funds to enable him to extend and develop his practice through an extended period of regular research and investment into new equipment. The bursary enabled Stuart to produce a new body of work, for exhibiting locally, nationally and internationally, which explored landscape, process and object through the reinterpretation of domestic forms.

The Rosy James bursary scheme, now in its third year, provides a unique opportunity for the development of exciting new work which probably would not otherwise be created. It gives artists the chance to devote time to their practice over the course of a year and to develop their ideas. This vital resource provides an environment and an inspiration which enables makers to push the boundaries of their practice.

Applications are now open and will close at 4pm on 26th August. For information on how to apply visit www.artscouncil-ni.org

Grants and Funding FROM THE Department of Arts, Heritage, Regional, Rural and Gaeltacht Affairs

Arts and Culture Capital Scheme 2016

In January 2016, the Minister for Arts, Heritage, Regional, Rural and Gaeltacht Affairs, Heather Humphreys TD, announced a new €9m Capital investment scheme for arts and culture centres. The scheme will run from 2016-2018 and is focussed on enhancing the existing stock of arts and culture centres throughout the country.

The funding is being made available as part of the Capital Investment Framework 2016-2021.

Applications are now being invited for funding under this Scheme.

Previous Schemes

- Grants for Arts And Culture Infrastructure

The current scheme called ACCESS II (Arts and Culture Capital Enhancement Support Scheme II) administered by the Department of Arts, Heritage Regional, Rural and Gaeltacht Affairs runs from 2007 to 2009. ACCESS II is designed to assist the provision of high standard arts and culture infrastructure, thereby enhancing access to the arts throughout the country and is intended to provide a further impetus to the development of arts and culture facilities, thereby enhancing the quality of life for our citizens. While the intention is to prioritise the enhancement and maintenance of existing facilities, there is also provision under the terms of the scheme to support new build projects.

A total of 67 projects received capital funding of €32m under the current ACCESS II scheme. The objective of the scheme is to prioritise the enhancement and maintenance of existing facilities, and accordingly 70% of the funds available under the scheme are directed towards the enhancement and/or refurbishment of existing facilities, with 30% for new facilities.

Projects supported included the provision of new integrated art centres, theatres and studio space and the refurbishment of existing performance spaces. It has been widely acknowledged as a significant intervention in the provision of quality cultural space throughout the regions.

- Business Expansion Scheme for Music

The Business Expansion Scheme for Music gives tax relief to investors in new and emerging commercial musical acts or groups. The Minister for Arts, Heritage Regional, Rural and Gaeltacht Affairs decides whether a project should be certified as eligible for such relief. Certification requires that the act in question has not had sales in excess of 5,000 albums either as a solo artist or as a member of a band. Guidelines have been agreed between the Minister for Arts, Heritage Regional, Rural and Gaeltacht Affairs and the Minister for Finance and are intended to outline the criteria to be used in certifying suitable projects for the purposes of this tax relief.

Applicants are advised to familiarise themselves regarding the full requirements of the Business Expansion Scheme. Further details relating to the overall operation of the BES as provided for in the Taxes Consolidation Act 1997 are available on the Revenue website. The Revenue information note is attached.

Minister Humphreys Publishes Draft Framework Policy for Culture 2025

The Minister for Arts, Heritage, Regional, Rural and Gaeltacht Affairs, Heather Humphreys TD, has published the draft Framework Policy for Culture 2025, Ireland's first ever national cultural policy. The draft policy will now be submitted to the Joint Oireachtas Committee on Arts for its input and consideration. Publication of Culture 2025 was identified as a priority in the Programme for a Partnership Government.

Minister Humphreys has also announced that she intends to hold an Annual Cultural Consultation Day, similar to the workshop which was held in the Royal Hospital Kilmainham last year as part of the Culture 2025 consultation process.

Under 7 key pillars, the Framework Policy document sets out a series of priority measures for implementation across Government and public bodies, including:

- Examining the systems and structures that support arts and culture;

- Increasing citizen participation in the arts;
- Progressively increasing funding to arts and culture as the economy improves, in line with the commitment in the Programme for a Partnership Government;
- Consideration of how to encourage non-Governmental funding support;
- Examining existing systems to ensure that more people can follow a sustainable career path in the cultural and heritage sectors;
- Improving collaboration within the cultural sector and between the cultural sector and wider civil society;
- Building on support for Irish culture on the world stage,
- Consideration of how cultural exchange can help build and maintain strong connections on the island of Ireland and between Britain and Ireland.
