Update on Road Projects

Mr. Ian Gardner provided a report for Members detailing road work updates for July. The report included information on pavement works, surface dressing, road openings, landscaping/planting, stockpile materials and maintenance works . He also provided the Members with details of works carried out or in progress for the re-opening of the City. Members thanked Mr. Gardner for the detailed report. They also thanked the staff of the Council. The Members raised the following queries/comments in relation to roads:

- Anti-social behaviour, animal cruelty, CCTV cameras on the Hebron Road and the possibility of using mobile CCTV unit.
- Long term car parking facilities/strategy & signage for people working in the City.
- Grass cutting, shore blasting and clarifying which housing estates that grass is cut in.
- Illegal dumping behind houses in Assumption Place and in Newpark Fen.
- Landscaping on Gaol Road.
- Tree pruning and removal.
- Works at St. Francis Terrace.

Mr. Butler and Mr. Gardner responded to all the Members queries. Mr. Butler confirmed that the Council will repair the 3 CCTV cameras on the Hebron Road. The Parking Bye-Laws will be reviewed later in the year and the Local Transport Plan will be looking at all aspects of parking and traffic management in the City. Mr. Gardner agreed to look at illegal dumping in Assumption Place and Newpark Fen. He will provide a list of Council maintained housing estates but most small estates are maintained by Residences Associations. The landscaping on Gaol Road will commence shortly and the tree pruning and removal will take place under the low-cost safety work scheme. He confirmed that works in St. Francis Terrace will start next week.

6. Fógra Foriarratais in ainm an Comh. John Coonan dar data 23rd June 2020

Notice of Motion in the name of Cllr John Coonan received 23rd June 2020

"That Kilkenny City Municipal District endeavour to take all necessary steps possible to resolve the upsurge in anti-social behaviour in the Linear Park. As reported to me and the Gardai from the resident's association of Riverside Drive & Sycamore / Aylesbury Estates".

Cllr. John Coonan explained that the Residents Association from the Linear Park area had contacted the Members regarding anti-social behaviour:

It was: Proposed by: Cllr. John Coonan
Seconded by: Cllr. Andrew McGuinness
And agreed by all

“ that necessary steps be taken to resolve the upsurge in anti-social behaviour in the Linear Park”.

Mr. Butler explained that significant works had been carried out by the Council in the area to prevent anti-social behaviour including new public lighting and barrier gates. These measures however, cannot prevent people congregating, drinking and making a nuisance which are matters for the Gardai. It is unclear what more the Council can do but Mr. Butler confirmed that he would be willing to speak again with Gardai and the Residences.

7. Aon Ghnó Eile

Any Other Business

Mr. Tim Butler thanked local businesses and the Elected Members for working with the Council on all the recent proposals and measures being implemented in the City including the social distancing, the new traffic system, the extended farmers market, welcome ambassadors, shop local campaign and others.

Cllr. Eugene McGuinness and Cllr. Andrew McGuinness highlighted the increase in animal cruelty in recent months and the need for enforcement measures to be taken. They acknowledged the difficulty of the situation but called for a zero-tolerance approach. Mr. Butler reassured Members that the Council are doing the upmost to eliminate animal cruelty including the seizing of dogs and horses but the recent restrictions had affected efforts. The new animal welfare committee will consist of 6 Councillors and 5 nominations from animal organisations. Members will be appointed to the committee at the next Council meeting. Cllr. Andrew McGuinness wanted to publicly thank the Council Executive for all their work in the area of animal cruelty and the other Members agreed. However, they called for more money, resources and personnel to be allocated to this area.

The Mayor requested that Ms. Catriona Corr, the new cycling officer for Kilkenny, attend the next Municipal District and give a presentation on cycling in Kilkenny.

The next meeting of Municipal District will take place on Friday 11th September 2020.

This concluded the business of the meeting.
